

Present simple ou present perfect progressif

Exercice 1

Choisissez le temps qui convient (présent simple ou présent progressif):

1. Wendy (learns / has been learning)English for four years.
2. She (likes / has been liking) Japanese and (practises / has been practising) every day.
3. Wendy (goes / has been going) to a japanese school for two years.
4. The teachers there (teach / have been teaching) their subjects in Japanese twice a week.

Exercice 2

Complétez les phrases suivantes avec le présent simple ou le présent progressif:

1. Wendy sometimes _____ mangas. (to read)
 2. We never _____ TV in the morning. (to watch)
 3. Listen! Sam _____ in the bathroom. (to sing)
 4. My brother usually _____ in the kitchen. (to help)
 5. My mum _____ breakfast now. (to make)
 6. They often _____ the kitchen. (to clean)
 7. Look! The girls _____ home. (to come)
 8. Every day his father _____ for a walk. (to go)
 9. I _____ with my sister at the moment. (to chat)
 10. Mice _____ cheese. (to eat)
-

Correction exercice 1

1. Wendy has been learning English for four years.
2. She likes Japanese and practises every day.
3. Wendy has been going to a japanese school for two years.
4. The teachers there teach their subjects in Japanese twice a week.

Correction exercice 2

1. Wendy sometimes reads mangas.
2. We never watch TV in the morning.
3. Listen! Sam is singing in the bathroom.
4. My brother usually helps in the kitchen.
5. My mum is making breakfast now.
6. They often clean the kitchen.
7. Look! The girls are coming home.
8. Every day his father goes for a walk.
9. I am chatting with my sister at the moment.
10. Mice eat cheese.